I hated surfers
Healthy under the sun
Not worrying their parents
Not being chased by the police
But up until 1 week ago, 2-3 people were composed
The delinquents as if they were knocked down
Let down their hair and went to the beach
When trouble comes around
Things can't help but get dangerous
But the most annoying thing about them
Is that there are so many women at the beach
And there are a lot of social meetups
Biker Gang's are the complete opposite of surfers
Darkness and the sound of an engine
We don't need anything else but that

He's a good guy.... I reaay want to meet him again... What's he up to?

As I thought, The beach really is the best!

Then come to the meetings

Why would I do something that could get me arrested?

And besides the meetings are probably nothing but plain ol' women

Meet-ings!

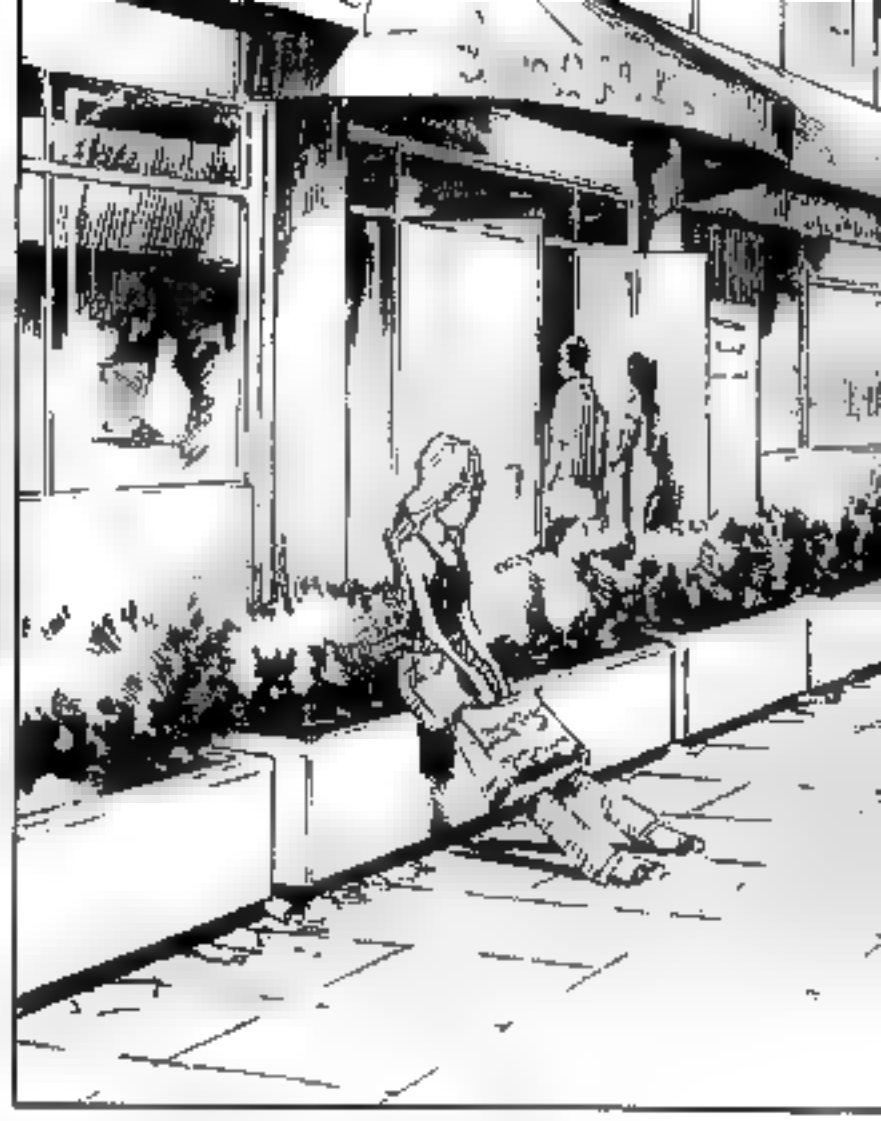
Don't talk so lightly about Ayase and them

Ah... It's Doi

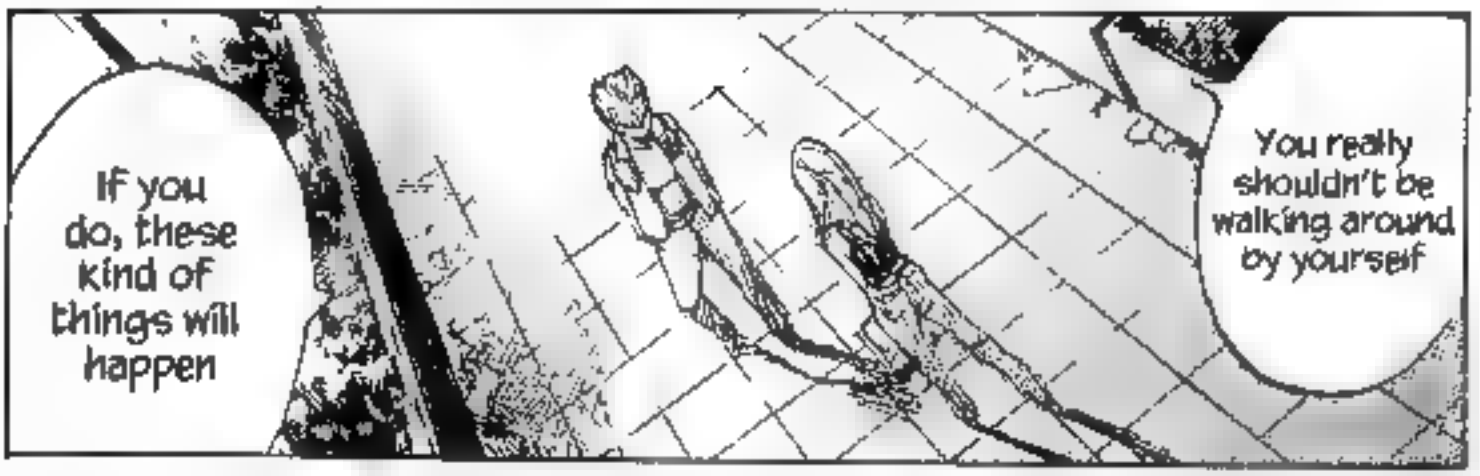
Oi, What's your name?

He probably doesn't remember you
They're the head of the ZEROS

Nice to meet you
The name's Kaze

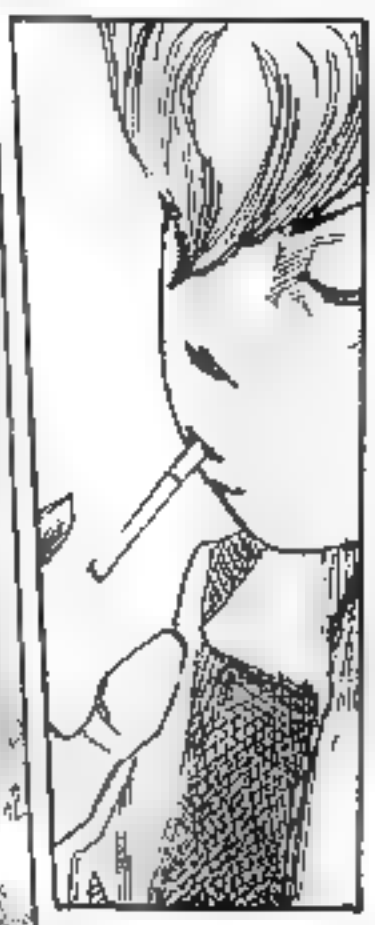


Takashi!



If you do, these kind of things will happen
You really shouldn't be walking around by yourself

I'm sorry



I was waiting for you

AUTHOR'S NOTE

*Note on the last page

The dividing of licenses for automatic bikes was established in 1975.

Up until then, 125 CC was a small license and up to 400 CC was for medium.

These 3 licenses were divided without considering the amount of exhaust emitted.

Before then the if you obtained an Automatic Bike License (putting the small license restrictions aside) you could drive regardless of the amount of exhaust it put out.

Kazuya's Mach III was released in 1969.

In 1970 the amount of deaths from car accidents was 16,000 and at the time that marked the worst number of deaths since the war.
